

Early Modern Intersections: Science, Experiments, Methodologies

April 18, 2016
Arad

Invited speakers: Peter Anstey (Sydney University) and Dana Jalobeanu (University of Bucharest)

Participants: Ovidiu Babeș (University of Bucharest/Vasile Goldiș Western University of Arad), Mihnea Dobre (University of Bucharest/Vasile Goldiș Western University of Arad), Remus Manoiă (University of Bucharest), Oana Matei (Vasile Goldiș Western University of Arad/ University of Bucharest), Alexandru Mexi (University of Bucharest/Vasile Goldiș Western University of Arad), Tinca Prunea Bretonnet (University of Bucharest), Doina-Cristina Rusu (University of Bucharest), Grigore Vida (New Europe College)

Organizers: Ovidiu Babeș, Mihnea Dobre, Oana Matei, Alexandru Mexi

Event organized with the support of Vasile Goldiș Western University of Arad, Faculty of Social and Humanistic Sciences, Centre for Social and Humanistic Research and The Romanian Council for Scientific Research, Project PN-II-RU-TE-2014-4-0694, Collaborative research, technological advancement and experimental philosophy in the seventeenth century: The Hartlib Circle and the rise of "the new science"

The event will take place at the Faculty of Social and Humanistic Sciences, 15 M. Eminescu